NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

invariably leads to severe complications. It is frequently followed by chronic indigestion, gastritis, rheumatism, and pernicious anemia. The blood is impoverished of its life-sustaining qualities, and the weary victim is afflicted with one chronic ill after another, until, a wreck of his former self, he drags out a sorry existence as a wretched invalid.

The Way That Cures

is to purify the blood, which will then supply the necessary food for the nerves, giving them tone and vigor to maintain their functions. Starting the circle of new life, the processes of the body are brought up to normal, and the patient is made to feel well.

WAR IS COSTING FRANCE MILLIONS

Yet Government Officials Claim That the Treasury is Far From Depleted.

Paris, Oct. 3.—The war is costing France $7,000,000 a day. Minister of Finance Alexandre Ribot announced today that the outlay for the first 20 days of the conflict had been $420,000,000.

In a Temps interview M. Ribot says the Bank of France in October had $312,000,000 in cash, which was $58,800,000 more than it had on the eve of the war.

"Advances made to the government October 1, after two months of the war, reached $420,000,000," the minister of finance said. "The credit balances on the same date in the treasury was $59,200,000 and, therefore, we are far from having exhausted the amount provided by our convention with the bank."

"France is far from having exhausted her reserves, and when her hour comes she will find the money for a new loan which at present is unnecessary."

"Dismissing the projected reopening of the Paris bourse M. Ribot said: 'It is not a question of interest in doing so without delay, but it is necessary to take into consideration that the exchange in London and New York still remains closed. There is

SOCIETY

R. E. Lee Chapter.
The R. E. Lee Chapter U. D. C. was pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Will Webb, on West Market street with Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Oscar Dean and Mrs. John Frank as hostesses. At the business session the delegates were elected to represent the chapter at the general convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to be held in Savannah in November. The delegates chosen were Miss Rhoda Vandiver, Mrs. M. L. Bonham and Mrs. Raymond Deaty with Mrs. Minnie Milford, Mrs. Chas. Sullivan and Mrs. E. R. Horton as alternates.

Other business was soon disposed of and an interesting literary program given. The first paper read was written by Miss Mary Riley, who won the R. E. Lee Chapter medal for the best paper written by a pupil of the Anderson High School. Miss Riley chose as her subject, "The Effect of the War Between the States on the Educational Conditions in the South."

Mrs. George Prince wrote a most interesting paper on "The Position of the States Before and After the Adoption of the Federal Constitution in 1781." This was read by Mrs. W. E. Cason.

A general discussion of the states that refused to accept the constitution and why was opened to all the members. Many unusual points were brought out and appreciated by the chapter.

The current events of special importance and interest to the chapter were read by Mrs. W. B. Cason.

The musical part of the program was also thoroughly appreciated. Mrs. James R. Vandiver and Miss Rhoda Vandiver, who spent last winter in Boston studying music, delighted all present with a beautiful vocal duet.

Mrs. W. B. Steele gave an instrumental solo that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Frank, and Mrs. Dean served their guests a delicious sweet course.

Junior Philathen—First Presbyterian Church.
Misses Annie and Tulle Anderson entertained the members of the Junior Philathen class of the First Presbyterian church at their country home, Monday afternoon with one of the most delightful meetings ever held.

Jardeneres and vases filled with golden rod were used to decorate the rooms where the dozen congenial girls spent the afternoon.

Miss Kathleen Norryce, the president of the class, presided and after planning the work to be done by the class for the month of October an entertaining program was given.

The first number on the program was an original story by Miss Gene Harris. Miss Kathleen Norryce gave two beautiful vocal solos which were thoroughly appreciated and Miss Carrie Fretwell an amusing reading.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Bennett Townsend made a most interesting announcement, when she told in a most appropriate way that one of the girls in the class had decided to change her name, and announced the engagement of Miss Annie Anderson and Dr. Harrison A. Pruitt, the wedding to take place in November.

The Misses Anderson, assisted by their mother and sister, Miss Lois Anderson, served their guests a delicious salad course.

Senior Philathen Class—First Presbyterian Church.
Mrs. Essie Taylor, Miss Eunice Russel and Mrs. R. L. Cannon, of Augusta, Ky. were the guests of honor at a delightful party Monday afternoon when Mrs. William Muldrow and Mrs. Clarence Tolly were the hostesses to the members of the Senior Philathen class of the First Presbyterian church. The members were entertained at Mrs. Muldrow's home on West Whitner street, which was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

This was a farewell party to Mrs. Taylor, who has gone to Ebert county, Georgia, to make her home with her son Frank Taylor and to Miss Russell, who has gone to New York city to accept a position in the main office of the United States postoffice. Mrs. Taylor has been teacher of the Senior Philathen class for a number of years and Miss Russell treasurer for the past year, so with their leaving the class loses two of its most earnest workers.

Mrs. Cannon was at one time a member of this class and as the guest of Mrs. B. O. Evans is receiving a most cordial welcome from her former friends. Mrs. Taylor, Miss Russell and Mrs. Cannon were each presented with a dainty silver pencil as a souvenir of the afternoon. Mrs. Muldrow and Mrs. Tolly, assisted by Mrs. Quis Hudgens, Mrs. B. O. Evans, Mrs. W. H. Fraser, and Miss Ewhank Taylor served a tempting salad course following this with an ice course.

For Mrs. Cannon.
Another pretty compliment to Mrs. E. L. Cannon, of Augusta, Ga., who is spending part of this week with Mrs. Bennett Townsend, on North McDuff street, was the sewing party, her hostess gave Tuesday afternoon. Each of the guests brought dainty bits of hand work, and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in this way.

Mrs. Townsend, assisted by Miss Ewhank Taylor, served her guests an elaborate salad course.

Those accepting this invitation were Mrs. Geo. Townsend, Mrs. William Muldrow, Mrs. W. H. Fraser, Mrs. Clarence Tolly, Mrs. Keith Prevost, Mrs. B. O. Evans, Mrs. Theo. Watson, Mrs. Fletcher McClure, Mrs. Andrew Speer, Mrs. Gus Hudgens, Miss Ewhank Taylor and the honored guest.

Beautiful Card Party.
Mrs. Chas. Gambrell was hostess Tuesday afternoon at one of the most delightful of the autumn parties when she entertained with cards at her home on West Market street. Her two sisters, Miss Nettie Symmes of Greenville, and Mrs. Malcolm McKinnin, of Brunswick, Ga., and Mrs. Joe Sweeney, of Greenville, were the attractive guests of honor.

Mr. Gambrell used golden rod, the favored flower of the fall season, to decorate her rooms where the guests were entertained.

Mrs. Nardin's home was beautifully decorated with yellow and white dahlias being placed on the mantels and tables to add to the favored color note.

Mrs. Clarence Brock and Mrs. Clyde Ross welcomed the guests at the door and invited them into the living room, where Mrs. Nardin, Miss Seybt and the girls who will be her attendants, Misses Lois Jackson of Iva, Ruth Fretwell, Alberta Brock and Mrs. W. D. McLean received. Mrs. U. E. Seybt, Mrs. S. D. Brownlee, Mrs. Louis Horton and Mrs. William Muldrow assisted also in the living room.

In the dining room Mrs. John Frank, Mrs. O. M. Heard, and Mrs. Ed Marshall served a delicious salad course. Yellow and white dahlias were again the chosen flower. A tall glass vase filled with dahlias made the central decoration for the table. Around this were yellow shaded candles and comports holding yellow and white mints.

After all the guests had arrived beautiful handpainted cards were given each and an amusing guessing contest "Marie's Troscau" was enjoyed.

Dainty little Miss Elizabeth Muldrow and Eugene Nardin dressed as a bride and groom, entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and showered the bride with useful bits of linen from her friends present.

Throughout the afternoon Mrs. George W. Chambers, Mrs. Chas. Greene, Mrs. William Muldrow and Mrs. Bob King sang love lyrics.

Among Mrs. Nardin's guests were Mrs. Dave Beatty, Mrs. Walter Beatty, Mrs. Eugene Burris, Mrs. Ban Harrington, Mrs. Clyde Ross, Miss Lucille Bray, Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs. Will Watson, Mrs. Louis Horton, Mrs. Dave Gray, Mrs. Louis Gray, Mrs. S. D. Brownlee, Mrs. Irvine Brownlee, Miss Evie Lewis, Mrs. J. B. Hungert, Mrs. John Speaks, Mrs. Chas. Greene, Mrs. Fred Felke, Mrs. B. B. Gossett, Misses Louise Bighy and Mildred Hayes.

Pruitt-Kimsey.
A wedding of unusual interest was that of Miss Ruth Pruitt, youngest daughter of Mr. John A. Pruitt, to Charles Edwin Kimsey, which was solemnized at the home of the bride on Greenville street, Thursday evening, October 1st, at eight-thirty o'clock. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and pink roses and before an improvised altar the ceremony was performed, the Rev. John F. Vines officiating. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Louie Cullum, of Batesburg, the bride and groom entered, Miss Nell Pruitt, a sister of the bride, attended her as maid. She wore an attractive white lace frock and carried an immense bouquet of pink roses.

The bride and groom entered the ceremony room together. She wore her beautiful wedding gown of white crepe de chine and long court train. Tiny roses held her veil in place, and a shower bouquet of tuberoses and ferns completed the bridal noisome.

During the ceremony Miss Cullum at the piano and Mr. George W. Chambers with the violin, softly played Traumeri.

After the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served. The table was beautifully decorated with pink roses and ferns and the color note of pink prevailed in this room also. Mrs. B. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. O. Sanders and Mrs. John L. Pruitt presided here, assisted by a number of the bride's girl friends who served. They were Misses Mildred Hayes, Pal Dgan, Kathleen McCuen, Lois Reed.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Kimsey left for their wedding trip. The bride traveled in a modish blue suit with hat and accessories to match.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Kimsey will go immediately into their attractive little bungalow on North street.

Among the out-of-town guests were Misses Louie and Mary Cullum, of Batesburg, and Misses Enla and Anne Bradley, of Greenville.

To Be Married.
Invitations were issued Monday from Charles Wakefield Fry to the wedding reception of his daughter, Lucille, and James Bethune Marshall, Jr., on the evening of Wednesday, October 14, at 7 o'clock, 106 East Moore street, Rock Hill. The ceremony will be performed at 6 o'clock, and after the reception the young couple will leave on the evening train for a bridal trip.

The bride, the oldest daughter of C. W. Fry, is a young woman of most pleasing personality, and one of the most popular of Rock Hill's younger society set, all of whom are greatly interested in coming happy event. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marshall, of Anderson, and lived in Rock Hill for several years while supervising the laying of water connections for the public works commission. During this time he made a number of warm friends. He is now located in Charlotte as a civil engineer, and here he and his bride will make their home.

Woodside-Frison.
Anderson society is greatly interested in the following announcement which was received in Anderson Friday:
Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Woodside announce the marriage of their daughter,
Helen Charles
to
Dr. Edward Cecil Frison, on Thursday, October the first, Nineteen Hundred and fourteen, Greenville, South Carolina.

Mrs. Frison is a charming girl and has made many friends who are visited in Anderson as the guest of Mrs. Lucius Webb, now of Panama, Ga., who was formerly Miss Lucille Sloan of this city.

Dr. Frison is a member of the firm of Frison's Pharmacy in Bolton and made his home in Anderson until a few years ago.
